

PRESS RELEASE ON HANDOVER AND TAKEOVER OF VICE CHANCELOR ROLE AT ALL SAINTS UNIVERSITY LANGO, 7 JANUARY 2026

Today Wednesday, 07 January 2026, marked a significant milestone in the history of All Saints University Lango. We witnessed a change of leadership (Vice Chancellor role) from Professor Andrew Anthony Cula to joint care taker Vice Chancellors Dr Edward Peace Obura Onep and Mr Martin Owiny. The handover and take over function took place today 7 January 2026 at the ASUL main campus on Boroboro Road.

Prof Culas two term contract of 10 years had come to an end.

The handover ceremony was presided over by the University Chancellor who is also the Bishop of the Diocese of Lango, Profesor Alfred Olwa and Chairman Governing Council, Mr. Francis Peter Ojede.

The handover marked a smooth transition of leadership and administration in the University.

The outgoing Vice Chancellor, Professor Andrew Anthony Cula highlighted a number of achievements made during his tenure of service and thanked the Chancellor, Chairman Governing Council, Council, Members of ASUL Management and the wider community of the University, Lango Sub region and beyond for their support during his tenure of service and prayed that the same spirit should be accorded to the In-coming team.

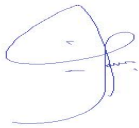

The in coming Care taker Vice Chancellors, Dr. Obura Edward Peace and Mr. Martin Owiny expressed their commitments in advancing the cause of All Saints University Langos strategic goals and objectives to greater heights.

The Chancellor and Chairman ASUL calls upon the public to accord the incoming caretakers of ASUL full support and cooperation as they move ASUL to the next level.

We would also like to inform the ublic that among the many tasks that was given to the new management is to introduce MBA programmes to be taught online, as evening programme and weekend programmes. We also directed, the incoming management to introduce online programmes in all programmes in the University and to also ensure that the Univeristy gets its Charter this year.

May the almighty God continue to guide and lift the University to greater hights. Amen

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Francis Peter Ojede', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Francis Peter Ojede

CHAIRMAN GOVERNING COUNCIL, ALL SAINTS UNIVERSITY LANGO